WELCOME

John Motson describes this weighty tome as his indispensable bible, a crucial reference throughout his long and distinguished career. That's quite a recommendation, coming as it does from the man who, wrapped in his famous sheepskin coat, evoked the joy of the beautiful game for millions of TV viewers and radio listeners. Copies of every edition of this famous old reference book, stretching back to its inception in the 1970–71 season, sit on John's book shelves. You can bet they are well thumbed. John, after all, has a stat or a fact for every occasion.

Now that line of distinctive fat, blue book spines will be joined by this, the 49th edition, after The Sun stepped in to save football's much-loved bible. Last year's Yearbook looked to have been the last: but Sun readers, who live and breathe football, just wouldn't have forgiven us if we hadn't intervened.

Our readers love football, devouring our football pages, packed with action and analysis from the best writers and pundits in the game: so it was natural that we should want to save such an important and integral part of the fabric of football.

The game is always changing – just look at the introduction of VAR technology – but there's something substantial, authoritative and reliable about The Football Yearbook.

The more than a thousand pages that follow this one burst with facts and figures that feed our national obsession, as they have done for nearly five decades.

We football fans are wired up differently from other human beings; our memory banks are packed with images of pain and pleasure, beautiful goals and tragic defeats. As well as the majesty of great players and fine teams, we remember scorelines and team formations, team sheets and tactics. But no brain can process and store every detail thrown up over a season. That's where The Football Yearbook, a publication that back in the 1970s set out to be the 'Wisden of football', comes in.

In the days before the internet, it was the only way to settle a dispute, and the best way to gain authority in a bar-room debate. Even today, when with smartphone in hand you can become an instant expert, there's a gravitas to the facts and figures laid out soberly on these pages.

The 2017–2018 season will be remembered for Pep Guardiola's commanding City team, and their assault on the record books. Whether it was points, wins or passes, City were a symphony in sky blue.

But hidden away in this book is the story of every team's season, the story of your team's season. Every page boasts a snippet of information capable of eliciting a smile or a grimace: this book is studded with statistical strikes of beauty and the occasional thudding, two-footed tackle of a reminder, all set out in black and white.

Every summer brings fresh optimism for the football fan – a reason to believe as the new season looms. But before then, lose yourself in the pages of this fine book. Soak up every detail it has to offer. Read the thoughts of The Sun's football experts: England legend Alan Shearer, our Head of Sport Shaun Custis and our Chief Football Reporter Neil Ashton.

Then, like John Motson, place it on the shelf with the others in your collection and brace yourself for another season of passion, pleasure and pain.

Tony Gallagher, Editor-in-Chief, The Sun

DREAM TEAM

The 2017–2018 Dream Team season really did belong to one man. Not since Cristiano Ronaldo graced the Premier League nearly a decade ago have we witnessed such a sensational individual campaign. Who are we talking about? Mo Salah, of course.

The 'Egyptian King' emphatically silenced any of the doubters who felt his uninspiring spell at Chelsea before would hamper his impact in the Premier League. Salah racked up a magnificent 412 points – becoming only the second player in Dream Team history after Ronaldo to break that 400-point barrier.

We must admit we were fully subscribed members of the Salah doubting brigade when he first moved to Liverpool last summer, valuing him at just £4m when the season started. But his record-breaking season saw his price rocket to a ridiculous £11.5m by the end of the campaign, by far and away the most expensive player on the game.

Salah smashed 43 goals and 14 assists across all competitions, averaged 7.9 points per game and won that crucial Star Man award a whopping nine times. It meant he finished well clear of nearest points rival Harry Kane, whose score of 376 was no mean feat either.

Despite missing a number of games through injury towards the end of the season, Tottenham's main man kept pace with Salah throughout the campaign but ultimately fell short. Kane hit the 30-goal mark in the Premier League for the first time in his career and, after signing an improved Spurs contract recently, is sure to be a Dream Team favourite again next season.

He was well ahead of Kevin De Bruyne (284 points) in third, with fellow Belgian Eden Hazard (281) and Liverpool forward Roberto Firmino (280) just behind.

Away from the headline names, there was also a lot of success for some of the more bargain options available. Crystal Palace captain Luka Milivojevic was priced at a measly £2.5m when the season started but his set-piece prowess meant he reached double figures for goals. And Burnley stalwart James Tarkowski may have just missed out on the England World Cup squad, but his season performances were stellar throughout on his way to totting up 118 points.

Conversely it was a disappointing season for the 2016–2017 top points scorer Alexis Sanchez, whose form dipped dramatically both at Arsenal and after his move to Manchester United. Sanchez managed just 171 points – just over half his total from the season before – which was only three more than Philippe Coutinho, who left the Premier League for Barcelona in January.

The likes of Wayne Rooney (85 points), Josh King (108) and Gylfi Sigurdsson (81) also had disappointing campaigns when they were tipped to shine at the start.

But their troubles all pale in comparison with Stoke's Kevin Wimmer. The Austrian defender, who moved to the Potteries from Spurs last summer, was officially the worst player on Dream Team after registering a grand total of –12 points. Ouch.

Romelu Lukaku was the most selected player on the game in 2017–2018, feeling the love of 45.3% of managers and just ahead of Salah and Kane.

So what about next season? Well you have to feel like the usual suspects – Salah, Kane, De Bruyne and co. – will all continue to dominate proceedings. We made the bold decision to make Kane the most expensive player in 2017–2018, but Salah's exploits in the last 12 months mean the England captain may have a rival at the top.

One player to monitor may well be Eden Hazard, with lingering doubts over his Chelsea future likely to have an influence over his Dream Team value and impact.

Leroy Sané won PFA Young Player of the Year last season and will look to continue his trail-blazing path towards world domination with Manchester City. Sané hit double figures for both goals and assists in all competitions and is only getting better at the tender age of 22.

His City team-mate Raheem Sterling was equally brilliant, scoring more Dream Team points than household names like Romelu Lukaku, Sadio Mané and Christian Eriksen.

And the new Premier League arrivals so far this summer will also be under the spotlight.

At the time of writing, Liverpool have probably carried out the most impressive business, snapping up one of the Bundesliga's shining lights in Naby Keita as their new midfield enforcer. Manchester United new boy Fred could also be a Dream Team favourite considering his ability from set pieces.

It all makes for a mouth-watering upcoming season which gets under way on 11th August so sign up today at dreamteamfc.com.

INTRODUCTION

The 49th edition of the Yearbook is our first in association with The Sun and includes every game of the European Qualifying campaign for the 2018 World Cup in Russia. Full match line-ups and league tables are included for all of the European qualifiers. Coverage of the qualifying campaign for the rest of the world is also included. The World Cup Finals in Russia are covered in detail. Other international football at various levels is also well catered for in this edition.

The concise feature entitled Cups and Ups and Downs Diary is included with dates of those events affecting cup finals, plus promotion and relegation issues. In a season where again a record number of managerial changes were made, the Managers In and Out section is once again included, with a diary of managerial changes throughout the year. In women's football, the Women's Super League and Premier Leagues are included, together with the UEFA Women's Championship and the UEFA Champions League. England Women's Internationals since 1974 and all of the 2017–18 season's games are covered.

At European level, the Champions League has its usual comprehensive details included, with results, goalscorers, attendances, full line-ups and formations from the qualifying rounds onwards and also including all the league tables from the respective group stages. The Europa League includes full line-ups and formations from the group stages onwards

The 2017–18 season ended as a record-breaking one for Pep Guardiola's Manchester City. Most Premier League points in a season, most Premier League goals in a season, most Premier League wins in a season together with a host of other records. Pep was voted Manager of the Year by his peers at the League Managers Association. Mo Salah of Liverpool was recipient of both the Football Writers' Footballer of the Year award and the PFA Player of the Year award. The Championship season ended with Wolverhampton Wanderers and Cardiff City promoted automatically, and they were joined by Fulham who won the Championship Play-Off 1-0 thanks to a first-half strike by Tom Cairney.

All of these statistics are reproduced in the pages devoted not only to the Premier League, but the three Football League competitions too, as well as all major allied cup competitions.

While transfer fees are invariably those reported at the time and rarely given as official figures, the edition reflects those listed at the time.

In the club-by-club pages that contain the line-ups of all league matches, appearances are split into starting and substitute appearances. In the Players Directory the totals show figures combined.

The Players Directory and its accompanying A to Z index enables the reader to quickly find the club of any specific player.

Throughout the book players sent off are designated with ▪; substitutes in the club pages are 12, 13 and 14. Included again in main cup competitions are the formations for each team.

In addition to competitions already mentioned there is full coverage of Scottish Premiership and Scottish League and cup competitions. There are also sections devoted to Welsh, Irish, Women's football, the Under-21s and various other UEFA youth levels, schools, reserve team, academies, referees and the leading non-league competitions as well as the work of club chaplains. The chief tournaments outside the UK at club and national level are not forgotten. The International Directory itself features Europe in some depth as well as every FIFA-affiliated country's international results for the year since July 2017; every reigning league and cup champion worldwide is listed.

Naturally there are international appearances and goals scored by players for England, Scotland, Northern Ireland, Wales and the Republic. For easy reference, those players making appearances and scoring goals in the season covered are picked out in bold type.

The Yearbook would like to extend its appreciation to the publishers Headline for excellent support in the preparation of this edition, particularly Jonathan Taylor for photographic selection throughout the book and to Graham Green for his continued support.

EDITORIAL

No matter how much money a manager has to spend or how well he has performed in the past, it is no guarantee of success going forward.

Pep Guardiola found English football was no cake-walk in his first year in charge: City finished third, well adrift of champions Chelsea and runners-up Spurs. But last season it all came together.

Guardiola's Manchester City played with a swagger and entertained us all in winning the Premier League title. For that reason, he is my manager of the season. He laid to rest the doubts about whether he could transfer the Barcelona way to the English game and silenced those who suggested he would have to bend to our ways. There were no compromises: Guardiola stuck to his beliefs and got his reward, and lovers of the beautiful game can rest easy that he will never change.

Even if you're not a City fan you have to admire the artistry they produce. But it was hard on their chief architect, Kevin De Bruyne, that he didn't win either of the major individual awards. He had the most assists in the Premier League last season (16) and at one time was my choice for the best player.

You just could not ignore Mo Salah though. Liverpool did not win a trophy but Salah could not have done more. He overtook myself and Cristiano Ronaldo in setting a record of 32 goals for a 38-game Premier League season. Every time Salah went through on goal the odds were on him scoring. He played with such confidence that it came as a real shock if he missed a chance. Salah's ascendancy from a bit-part player at Chelsea to being one of the most feared attackers in world football is a tribute to his hard work and determination to reach the top.

Both Salah and De Bruyne took part in what, for me, was the game of the season when Liverpool beat City 4-3 at Anfield. Salah scored the fourth to put Liverpool 4-1 up but a late rally by City almost rescued a point. Guardiola continued to attack even when City were being picked apart and the game was a wonderful example of the Premier League at its exciting best. It also gave Liverpool the belief that they could take the game to City and come out on top, which stood them in good stead when they overwhelmed City in the Champions League quarter-final.

Mind you, for all the brilliance that both City and Liverpool produced, my goal of the season goes to Chelsea's Willian. The Blues' second goal in the 4-0 win at Brighton showed what that team could do when they put their minds to it. Willian started and finished the move, first firing a pass to Eden Hazard, who flicked it on to Michy Batshuayi. He, in turn, back-heeled a pass to the Brazilian who buried a shot from 18 yards.

When I'm looking for my hero of the season, Sean Dyche gets it hands down. Dyche could easily have been my manager of the season because to get Burnley into Europe was a remarkable achievement on his budget. What a job he has done at a club which are an object lesson to those who panic when things start going wrong and fire the boss. Burnley's strategic long-term planning meant relegation did not cost Dyche his job and instead he was allowed to build and come back stronger.

Finally let's hear it for the three sides promoted from the Championship who all managed to stay up and did so before the last game of the campaign, which was no mean achievement.

A big pat on the back for Rafa Benitez, Chris Hughton and David Wagner, the respective managers of Newcastle, Brighton and Huddersfield.

Many of the players involved in the promotion campaigns were retained for the Premier League battle, in part due to budget restrictions. For clubs like Brighton and Huddersfield, that prudence was understandable.

Newcastle, on the other hand, are one of this country's biggest clubs in terms of fan support and those fans want to see investment in their club. A mid-table finish proved they could be challenging at the top end of the table, not scrapping it out with those at the bottom.

TEAM OF THE SEASON 2017–18

NEIL ASHTON, CHIEF FOOTBALL REPORTER, THE SUN

David de Gea
(Manchester United)

Kevin De Bruyne (Manchester City) | Fernandinho (Manchester City) | David Silva (Manchester City)

Manager: Pep Guardiola
(Manchester City)

David de Gea: de Gea has been named Manchester United's player of the year in four of the past five seasons. With Bayern Munich keeper Manuel Neuer out for most of the year with an injury, the Spaniard established himself as arguably the best keeper in world football.

Kyle Walker: moved to Manchester City and won his first Premier League title under the guidance and tutelage of Pep Guardiola. In an era when the Premier League is crying out for top-class right-backs, Walker has become one of the very best in the business.

Nicolás Otamendi: overcame a tough start to life in England to become the main man at the heart of Manchester City's title-winning defence. In the absence of captain Vincent Kompany for long periods, the Argentina defender became incredibly influential during City's march towards their first Premier League title under Pep.

Jan Vertonghen: without Toby Alderweireld alongside him, Vertonghen marshalled Tottenham's defence with his customary authority and composure. He has become increasingly assured, establishing himself as one of the best central defenders in the Premier League.

Ashley Young: a right-footed right-winger turned Manchester United's first choice left-back. It sounds crazy, but Young's diligent, disciplined approach under Jose Mourinho was rewarded with a place in England's World Cup squad. Young's performances, keeping Luke Shaw out of the United side for the majority of the season, were rewarded with a one-year contract extension.

Kevin De Bruyne: his sparkling performances for City at the start of the season caught the eye, powering Pep's team on as they set out to win the title. De Bruyne finished the season with 16 assists, one more than his team-mate Leroy Sané.

Fernandinho: stitches it all together in the centre of City's midfield. A combative, driving presence, the Brazilian has cemented his place in the side after Yaya Toure's glorious career at the Etihad started to fade. At 33, he is still going strong and shows no sign of slowing up.

David Silva: regarded by many Manchester City supporters as their greatest player of all time, he had another exceptional season in difficult circumstances. Despite frequent trips back to Spain to be with his wife following a complicated pregnancy, he still finished with 11 assists and nine goals. A first-class footballer.

Mo Salah: the PFA Player of Year and FWA Footballer of the Year, Salah was exceptional. He scored 44 times for Liverpool and made another 10 during this compelling run of form in a red shirt. In a year when Liverpool sold cult hero Philippe Coutinho to Barcelona, Salah has become an Anfield icon.

Harry Kane: despite two spells out through injury, Kane still came up with the goods to score 41 goals in a Tottenham shirt. Despite interest from some of the world's leading football clubs, Kane has committed his future to Spurs by signing a new contract at White Hart Lane. Unquestionably, he has earned it.

Sergio Agüero: not a vintage season in front of goal, but the Argentinian overcame the threat of recent arrival Gabriel Jesus to score another 21 times in the Premier League. Although his relationship with Guardiola appears distant at times, Agüero remains a ruthless finisher.

Manager, Pep Guardiola: Guardiola was heavily criticised when he failed to win the Premier League in his first season, but City became the first side to rack up 100 points when they won it at a canter in his second. They are an exceptional side, perhaps the best in Premier League history after scoring 106 times on the way to claiming the title.

FOOTBALL AWARDS 2017–18

THE FOOTBALL WRITERS' FOOTBALLER OF THE YEAR 2018

The Football Writers' Association Sir Stanley Matthews Trophy for the Footballer of the Year was awarded to Mohamed Salah of Liverpool and Egypt. Kevin De Bruyne (Manchester C and Belgium) was runner-up and Harry Kane (Tottenham H and England) came third.

REVIEW OF THE SEASON 2017–18

For Manchester City fans this was one of the greatest seasons of all time even if, as far as the Premier League goes, it wasn't the most competitive.

City seemed to be on a mission to break every record in the book. Pep Guardiola's entertainers, inspired by creative midfielder Kevin De Bruyne, romped to the title setting record after record, including most points in a season (100) and most goals (106).

Their nearest rivals could hardly be called serious challengers as Manchester United finished a distant 19 points behind in second place. United could take little comfort from the fact that a 3-2 win at the Etihad delayed City being crowned champions. That defeat was one of only two City suffered in their League campaign, the other being an eventful 4-3 loss at Liverpool.

Jürgen Klopp's men also inflicted a mortal wound in City's bid for Champions League glory at the quarter-final stage by a surprisingly comfortable 5-1 aggregate over the two legs. There was, too, a shock defeat for City in the FA Cup when they lost to League One Wigan Athletic, the same team which had beaten them in the 2013 FA Cup Final.

City did achieve a trophy double though, lifting the Carabao Cup after a 3-0 thumping of Arsenal, and giving Guardiola his first trophy in England.

Manchester United had little to shout about despite the fact their runners-up position represented positional progress. Manager Jose Mourinho was criticised for his style of play which compared so unfavourably to that of City and produced 38 fewer goals in the Premier League. The FA Cup final offered hope of silverware to wave in front of the critics but United lost to Chelsea to finish the season empty-handed.

Tottenham found life difficult at first in their adopted home of Wembley. They soon picked up and optimism was again growing that they could challenge for major honours, but they faded away. However, boss Mauricio Pochettino pledged his future to the club, signing a new deal, as did star striker Harry Kane, which sets them up well for when they move in to their brand new stadium which has replaced White Hart Lane.

Liverpool had the star of the season in Mo Salah, who was voted both the FWA and PFA Player of the Year as well as edging out Kane by two goals for the Premier League's golden boot, having netted 32 times.

Klopp may not have threatened City in the title race but his victory over Guardiola in the Champions League showed what his team was capable of. Success against Roma in a remarkable two-legged semi-final took Liverpool to the final in Kiev where they dreamed of adding to their five European Cups.

But they came up short, losing 3-1 to Real Madrid in a game which featured two horrible mistakes by goalkeeper Loris Karius and a sensational overhead kick by Welshman Gareth Bale, who scored twice.

Defending champions Chelsea never seemed happy and there were continuous questions over the future of manager Antonio Conte despite the season ending in that FA Cup final triumph over United thanks to an Eden Hazard penalty.

It was a season in which Arsenal said goodbye to the country's longest serving manager, Arsène Wenger, who was eased out of the hot-seat by a board which eventually decided it was time to take the club in a new direction having been under constant fire from fans who wanted change.

Wenger was in charge of the Gunners for almost 22 years, winning three titles and seven FA Cups and taking his 'Invincibles' through an entire Premier League season unbeaten in 2003–04. But his second decade saw a steady decline in fortunes and sixth place without a trophy was not the finish to his reign he would have craved.

While Arsenal were seen as failures, Burnley manager Sean Dyche received great plaudits for guiding the small-town club to seventh and into Europe.

Meanwhile Sam Allardyce, who steered Everton away from the relegation zone and into the top half, got only grief for his efforts from supporters who wanted more expansive football. His contract was not renewed.

Leicester fans weren't too enamoured with manager Claude Puel either even though he took them to ninth, while Rafa Benitez fought against the odds to get Newcastle into the top ten against a backdrop of austerity at St James' Park.

For the first time since 2012 all three promoted clubs stayed up: Newcastle, Brighton and Huddersfield. The Terriers performed heroically towards the death to maintain their status, while Swansea fell apart and, along with Stoke and West Brom, were relegated.

West Brom's remarkable late rally under caretaker boss Darren Moore, their fourth manager of the season, was not enough to save them. They were left with far too much to do following the sacking of Alan Pardew.

The Premier League's smallest club, Bournemouth, ensured survival again, along with Watford, while West Ham clinched safety after a tumultuous campaign and fan unrest which resulted in David Moyes leaving at the end of the season.

Former England boss Roy Hodgson did a superb job at Crystal Palace to rescue them from the depths after Frank De Boer was sacked four League games into the season. Palace registered neither a point nor even a goal from their first seven matches.

Meanwhile Mark Hughes, so bruised by his dismissal at Stoke, had the last laugh when he took over Southampton and kept them up while his old club went down.

Wolves returned to the big time under Portuguese boss Nuno Espírito Santo whose side were only one point short of three figures in winning the Championship. Neil Warnock worked his promotion magic once more to guide Cardiff City back to the Premier League in second place, and Slavisa Jokanovic's Fulham edged out Aston Villa in the play-off final.

A pitiful Sunderland suffered a second successive relegation and manager Chris Coleman was axed by the new owners. On a dramatic last day, Burton Albion and Barnsley went down too, with Bolton just managing to keep their heads above water along with Reading.

Two famous former top-flight clubs are on the way back: Wigan claimed the League One title while 1995 Premier League champions, Blackburn, were runners-up. Rotherham made it from the play-offs by beating Shrewsbury.

Oldham, Northampton, MK Dons and Bury dropped down to be replaced from League Two by the team synonymous with football history, Accrington Stanley, 1988 League Cup winners Luton, Wycombe and 1987 FA Cup winners Coventry.

Down to the National League went Chesterfield and Barnet swapping places with Macclesfield and Tranmere, who beat Boreham Wood 2-1 in the play-off final. Tranmere played almost the entire game with ten men after having a player sent off in the opening minute. It was a return to League football for the men from the Wirral following three years in the National League wilderness.

ACCRINGTON STANLEY

FOUNDATION

Accrington Football Club, founder members of the Football League in 1888, were not connected with Accrington Stanley. In fact both clubs ran concurrently between 1891 when Stanley were formed and 1895 when Accrington FC folded. Actually Stanley Villa was the original name, those responsible for forming the club living in Stanley Street and using the Stanley Arms as their meeting place. They became Accrington Stanley in 1893. In 1894–95 they joined the Accrington & District League, playing at Moorhead Park. Subsequently they played in the North-East Lancashire Combination and the Lancashire Combination before becoming founder members of the Third Division (North) in 1921, two years after moving to Peel Park. In 1962 they resigned from the Football League, were wound up, re-formed in 1963, disbanded in 1966 only to restart as Accrington Stanley (1968), returning to the Lancashire Combination in 1970.

AFC WIMBLEDON

FOUNDATION

While the history of AFC Wimbledon is straightforward since it was a new club formed in 2002, there were in effect two clubs operating for two years with Wimbledon connections. The other club was MK Dons, of course. In August 2001, the Football League had rejected the existing Wimbledon's application to move to Milton Keynes. In May 2002, they rejected local sites and were given permission to move by an independent commission set up by the Football League. AFC Wimbledon was founded in the summer of 2002 and held its first trials on Wimbledon Common. In subsequent years, there was considerable debate over the rightful home of the trophies obtained by the former Wimbledon football club. In October 2006, an agreement was reached between Milton Keynes Dons FC, its Supporters Association, the Wimbledon Independent Supporters Association and the Football Supporters Federation to transfer such trophies and honours to the London Borough of Merton.

ARSENAL

FOUNDATION

Formed by workers at the Royal Arsenal, Woolwich in 1886, they began as Dial Square (name of one of the workshops), and included two former Nottingham Forest players, Fred Beardsley and Morris Bates. Beardsley wrote to his old club seeking help and they provided the new club with a full set of red jerseys and a ball. The club became known as the 'Woolwich Reds' although their official title soon after formation was Woolwich Arsenal.

ASTON VILLA

FOUNDATION

Cricketing enthusiasts of Villa Cross Wesleyan Chapel, Aston, Birmingham decided to form a football club during the winter of 1874–75. Football clubs were few and far between in the Birmingham area and in their first game against Aston Brook St Mary's rugby team they played one half rugby and the other soccer. In 1876 they were joined by Scottish soccer enthusiast George Ramsay who was immediately appointed captain and went on to lead Aston Villa from obscurity to one of the country's top clubs in a period of less than ten years.

BARNET

FOUNDATION

Barnet Football Club was formed in 1888 as an amateur organisation and they played at a ground in Queen's Road until they disbanded in 1901. A club known as Alston Works FC was then formed and they played at Totteridge Lane until changing to Barnet Alston FC in 1906. They moved to their present ground a year later, combining with The Avenue to form Barnet and Alston in 1912. The club progressed to senior amateur football by way of the Athenian and Isthmian Leagues, turning professional in 1965. It was as a Southern League and Conference club that they made their name.

BLACKBURN ROVERS

FOUNDATION

It was in 1875 that some public school old boys called a meeting at which the Blackburn Rovers club was formed and the colours blue and white adopted. The leading light was John Lewis, later to become a founder of the Lancashire FA, a famous referee who was in charge of two FA Cup finals, and a vice-president of both the FA and the Football League.

BOLTON WANDERERS

FOUNDATION

In 1874 boys of Christ Church Sunday School, Blackburn Street, led by their master Thomas Ogden, established a football club which went under the name of the school and whose president was vicar of Christ Church. Membership was 6d (two and a half pence). When their president began to lay down too many rules about the use of church premises, the club broke away and formed Bolton Wanderers in 1877, holding their earliest meetings at the Gladstone Hotel.

BRADFORD CITY

FOUNDATION

Bradford was a rugby stronghold around the turn of the 20th century but after Manningham RFC held an archery contest to help them out of financial difficulties in 1903, they were persuaded to give up the handling code and turn to soccer. So they formed Bradford City and continued at Valley Parade. Recognising this as an opportunity to spread the dribbling code in this part of Yorkshire, the Football League immediately accepted the new club's first application for membership of the Second Division.

BRIGHTON & HOVE ALBION

FOUNDATION

A professional club Brighton United was formed in November 1897 at the Imperial Hotel, Queen's Road, but folded in March 1900 after less than two seasons in the Southern League at the County Ground. An amateur team Brighton & Hove Rangers was then formed by some prominent United supporters and after one season at Withdean, decided to turn semi-professional and play at the County Ground. Rangers were accepted into the Southern League but folded in June 1901. John Jackson, the former United manager, organised a meeting at the Seven Stars public house, Ship Street on 24 June 1901 at which a new third club Brighton & Hove United was formed. They took over Rangers' place in the Southern League and pitch at County Ground. The name was changed to Brighton & Hove Albion before a match was played because of objections by Hove FC.

BRISTOL CITY

FOUNDATION

The name Bristol City came into being in 1897 when the Bristol South End club, formed three years earlier, decided to adopt professionalism and apply for admission to the Southern League after competing in the Western League. The historic meeting was held at the Albert Hall, Bedminster. Bristol City employed Sam Hollis from Woolwich Arsenal as manager and gave him £40 to buy players. In 1900 they merged with Bedminster, another leading Bristol club.

DID YOU KNOW?

Bristol City experienced a very difficult season in 2012–13 when they were relegated from the Championship after finishing bottom of the division. The Supporters' Club and Trust made no Player of the Year award that season but two years later when they topped the League One table with a club-record 99 points the award was given to the whole team.

BRISTOL ROVERS

FOUNDATION

Bristol Rovers were formed at a meeting in Stapleton Road, Eastville, in 1883. However, they first went under the name of the Black Arabs (wearing black shirts). Changing their name to Eastville Rovers in their second season in 1888–89, they won the Gloucestershire Senior Cup. Original members of the Bristol & District League in 1892, this eventually became the Western League and Eastville Rovers adopted professionalism in 1897.

BURTON ALBION

FOUNDATION

Once upon a time there were three Football League clubs bearing the name Burton. Then there was none. In reality it had been two. Originally Burton Swifts and Burton Wanderers competed in it until 1901 when they amalgamated to form Burton United. This club disbanded in 1910. There was no senior club representing the town until 1924 when Burton Town, formerly known as Burton All Saints, played in the Birmingham & District League, subsequently joining the Midland League in 1935–36. When the Second World War broke out the club fielded a team in a truncated version of the Birmingham & District League taking over from the club's reserves. But it was not revived in peacetime. So it was not until a further decade that a club bearing the name of Burton reappeared. Founded in 1950 Burton Albion made progress from the Birmingham & District League, too, then into the Southern League and because of its geographical situation later had spells in the Northern Premier League. In April 2009 Burton Albion restored the name of the town to the Football League competition as champions of the Blue Square Premier League.

The club's progress through local leagues was so rapid that after the First World War they joined the Kent League where they spent a season before turning professional and joining the Southern League in 1920. CHELSEA

FOUNDATION

Chelsea may never have existed but for the fact that Fulham rejected an offer to rent the Stamford Bridge ground from Mr H. A. Mears who had owned it since 1904. Fortunately he was determined to develop it as a football stadium rather than sell it to the Great Western Railway and got together with Frederick Parker, who persuaded Mears of the financial advantages of developing a major sporting venue. Chelsea FC was formed in 1905 and applications made to join both the Southern League and Football League. The latter competition was decided upon because of its comparatively meagre representation in the south of England.

CHELTENHAM TOWN

FOUNDATION

Although a scratch team representing Cheltenham played a match against Gloucester in 1884, the earliest recorded match for Cheltenham Town FC was a friendly against Dean Close School on 12 March 1892. The School won 4–3 and the match was played at Prestbury (half a mile from Whaddon Road). Cheltenham Town played Wednesday afternoon friendlies at a local cricket ground until entering the Mid Gloucester League. In those days the club played in deep red coloured shirts and were nicknamed 'the Rubies'. The club moved to Whaddon Lane for season 1901–02 and changed to red and white colours two years later.

Cheltenham Town AFC was incorporated as a limited company on 27 February 1937. The initial share capital comprised 5,000 shares valued at 10 shillings (50p) each. It was believed that the change in structure would put the club on a better financial footing and also help increase attendances.

CHESTERFIELD

FOUNDATION

Chesterfield are fourth only to Stoke, Notts County and Nottingham Forest in age for they can trace their existence as far back as 1866, although it is fair to say that they were somewhat casual in the first few years of their history, playing only a few friendlies a year. However, their rules of 1871 are still in existence, showing an annual membership of 2s (10p), but it was not until 1891 that they won a trophy (the Barnes Cup) and followed this a year later by winning the Sheffield Cup, Barnes Cup and the Derbyshire Junior Cup.

CRAWLEY TOWN

FOUNDATION

Formed in 1896, Crawley Town initially entered the West Sussex League before switching to the mid-Sussex League in 1901, winning the Second Division in its second season. The club remained at such level until 1951 when it became members of the Sussex County League and five years later moved to the Metropolitan League while remaining as an amateur club. It was not until 1962 that the club turned semi-professional and a year later, joined the Southern League. Many honours came the club's way, but the most successful run was achieved in 2010–11 when they reached the fifth round of the FA Cup and played before a crowd of 74,778 spectators at Old Trafford against Manchester United. Crawley Town spent 48 years at the Town Mead ground before a new site was occupied at Broadfield in 1997, ideally suited to access from the neighbouring motorway. History was also made on 9 April when the team won promotion to the Football League after beating Tamworth 3-0 to stretch their unbeaten League record to 26 games. They finished the season with a Conference record points total of 105 and at the same time, established another milestone for the longest unbeaten run, having extended it to 30 matches by the end of the season.

CRYSTAL PALACE

FOUNDATION

There was a Crystal Palace club as early as 1861 but the present organisation was born in 1905 after the formation of a club by the company that controlled the Crystal Palace (building) had been rejected by the FA, who did not like the idea of the Cup Final hosts running their own club. A separate company had to be formed and they had their home on the old Cup Final ground until 1915.

DERBY COUNTY

FOUNDATION

To begin with, they sported the cricket club's colours of amber, chocolate and pale blue, and went into the game at the top immediately entering the FA Cup.

EVERTON

FOUNDATION

St Domingo Church Sunday School formed a football club in 1878 which played at Stanley Park. Enthusiasm was so great that in November 1879 they decided to expand membership and changed the name to Everton, playing in black shirts with a scarlet sash and nicknamed the 'Black Watch'. After wearing several other colours, royal blue was adopted in 1901.

EXETER CITY

FOUNDATION

Exeter City was formed in 1904 by the amalgamation of St Sidwell's United and Exeter United. The club first played in the East Devon League and then the Plymouth & District League. After an exhibition match between West Bromwich Albion and Woolwich Arsenal, which was held to test interest as Exeter was then a rugby stronghold, it was decided to form Exeter City. At a meeting at the Red Lion Hotel in 1908, the club turned professional.

FLEETWOOD TOWN

FOUNDATION

Originally formed in 1908 as Fleetwood FC, it was liquidated in 1976. Re-formed as Fleetwood Town in 1977, it folded again in 1996. Once again, it was re-formed a year later as Fleetwood Wanderers, but a sponsorship deal saw the club's name immediately changed to Fleetwood Freeport through the local retail outlet centre. This sponsorship ended in 2002, but since then local energy businessman Andy Pilley took charge and the club has risen through the non-league pyramid until finally achieving Football League status in 2012 as Fleetwood Town.

FOREST GREEN ROVERS

FOUNDATION

A football club was recorded at Forest Green as early as October 1889, established by Rev Edward Peach, a local Congregationalist minister. This club joined the Mid-Gloucestershire League for 1894–95 but disappeared around 1896 and was reformed as Forest Green Rovers in 1898. Rovers affiliated to the Gloucestershire county FA from 1899–1900 and competed in local leagues, mostly the Stroud & District and Dursley & District Leagues before joining the Gloucestershire Senior League North in 1937, where they remained until 1968. They became founder members of the Gloucestershire County League in 1968 and progressed to the Hellenic League in 1975. Success over Rainworth MW in the 1982 FA Vase final at Wembley was the start of the club's rise up the pyramid, firstly to the Southern League for the 1982–83 season and then the Football Conference from 1998–99. Rovers reached the play-offs in 2014–15 and 2015–16, losing to Bristol Rovers and Grimsby Town respectively, before finally achieving their goal of a place in the Football League with their 3-1 Play-Off victory over Tranmere Rovers on 14 May 2017.

Centre-forward Ronnie Rooke set a club record when he scored all six of Fulham's goals in their FA Cup third-round tie against Bury at Craven Cottage on 7 January 1939. Fulham wore red shirts borrowed from Charlton Athletic for the game because their normal kit clashed with the visitors' shirts.

GILLINGHAM

FOUNDATION

The success of the pioneering Royal Engineers of Chatham excited the interest of the residents of the Medway Towns and led to the formation of many clubs including Excelsior. After winning the Kent Junior Cup and the Chatham District League in 1893, Excelsior decided to go for bigger things and it was at a meeting in the Napier Arms, Brompton, in 1893 that New Brompton FC came into being, buying and developing the ground which is now Priestfield Stadium. They changed their name to Gillingham in 1913, when they also changed their strip from black and white stripes to predominantly blue.

DID YOU KNOW ?

Despite finishing second to bottom of Division Two in 1909–10, Grimsby Town failed to gain re-election at the end of the season and played in the Midland League in 1910–11. They were only away for one season and returned at the expense of Lincoln City for 1911–12, pipping their county rivals by just a single vote.

HUDDERSFIELD TOWN

FOUNDATION

A meeting, attended largely by members of the Huddersfield & District FA, was held at the Imperial Hotel in 1906 to discuss the feasibility of establishing a football club in this rugby stronghold. However, it was not until a man with both the enthusiasm and the money to back the scheme came on the scene that real progress was made. This benefactor was Mr Hilton Crowther and it was at a meeting at the Albert Hotel in 1908 that the club formally came into existence with an investment of £2,000 and joined the North-Eastern League.

HULL CITY

FOUNDATION

The enthusiasts who formed Hull City in 1904 were brave men indeed. More than that, they were audacious for they immediately put the club on the map in this Rugby League fortress by obtaining a three-year agreement with the Hull Rugby League club to rent their ground! They had obtained quite a number of conversions to the dribbling code, before the Rugby League forbade the use of any of their club grounds by Association Football clubs. By that time, Hull City were well away, having entered the FA Cup in their initial season and the Football League, Second Division after only a year.

DID YOU KNOW?

In the period from 1925–26 (when official attendance figures were first held) up to the outbreak of war in 1939, Hull City's average attendance never rose above the 11,302 achieved in 1926–27. However, following the post-war move to Boothferry Park seasonal average attendances were three times those levels by the early 1950s.

IPSWICH TOWN

FOUNDATION

Considering that Ipswich Town only reached the Football League in 1938, many people outside of East Anglia may be surprised to learn that this club was formed at a meeting held in the Town Hall as far back as 1878 when Mr T. C. Cobbold, MP, was voted president. Originally it was the Ipswich Association FC to distinguish it from the older Ipswich Football Club which played rugby. These two amalgamated in 1888 and the handling game was dropped in 1893.

LEEDS UNITED

FOUNDATION

Immediately the Leeds City club (founded in 1904) was wound up by the FA in October 1919, following allegations of illegal payments to players, a meeting was called by a Leeds solicitor, Mr Alf Masser, at which Leeds United was formed. They joined the Midland League, playing their first game in that competition in November 1919. It was in this same month that the new club had discussions with the directors of a virtually bankrupt Huddersfield Town who wanted to move to Leeds in an amalgamation. But Huddersfield survived even that crisis.

LINCOLN CITY

FOUNDATION

The original Lincoln Football Club was established in the early 1860s and was one of the first provisional clubs to affiliate to the Football Association. In their early years, they regularly played matches against the famous Sheffield Football Club and later became known as Lincoln Lindum. The present organisation was formed at a public meeting held in the Monson Arms Hotel in June 1884 and won the Lincolnshire Cup in only their third season. They were founder members of the Midland League in 1889 and that competition's first champions.

LIVERPOOL

FOUNDATION

But for a dispute between Everton FC and their landlord at Anfield in 1892, there may never have been a Liverpool club. This dispute persuaded the majority of Evertonians to quit Anfield for Goodison Park, leaving the landlord, Mr John Houlding, to form a new club. He originally tried to retain the name 'Everton' but when this failed, he founded Liverpool Association FC on 15 March 1892.

LUTON TOWN

FOUNDATION

Formed by an amalgamation of two leading local clubs, Wanderers and Excelsior a works team, at a meeting in Luton Town Hall in April 1885. The Wanderers had three months earlier changed their name to Luton Town Wanderers and did not take too kindly to the formation of another Town club but were talked around at this meeting. Wanderers had already appeared in the FA Cup and the new club entered in its inaugural season.

MANCHESTER CITY

FOUNDATION

Manchester City was formed as a limited company in 1894 after their predecessors Ardwick had been forced into bankruptcy. However, many historians like to trace the club's lineage as far back as 1880 when St Mark's Church, West Gorton added a football section to their cricket club. They amalgamated with Belle Vue for one season before splitting again under the name Gorton Association FC in 1884–85. In 1887 Gorton AFC turned professional and moved ground to Hyde Road under the new name Ardwick AFC.

MANCHESTER UNITED

FOUNDATION

Manchester United was formed as comparatively recently as 1902 after their predecessors, Newton Heath, went bankrupt. However, it is usual to give the date of the club's foundation as 1878 when the dining room committee of the carriage and waggon works of the Lancashire and Yorkshire Railway Company formed Newton Heath L and YR Cricket and Football Club. They won the Manchester Cup in 1886 and as Newton Heath FC were admitted to the Second Division in 1892.

Manchester United were the first team to win a domestic cup tie by way of a penalty shoot-out. Their Watney Cup semi-final tie against Hull City in August 1970 finished 1-1 after extra time and under the new rules the game went to penalties. George Best converted the first spot-kick and although Denis Law failed to score with his effort United won the shoot-out 4-3.

MANSFIELD TOWN

FOUNDATION

The club was formed as Mansfield Wesleyans in 1897, and changed their name to Mansfield Wesley in 1906 and Mansfield Town in 1910. This was after the Mansfield Wesleyan Chapel trustees had requested that the club change its name as 'it has no longer had any connection with either the chapel or school'. The new club participated in the Notts and Derby District League, but in the following season 1911–12 joined the Central Alliance.

Mansfield Town had a reprieve in 1967–68 when they finished in the Division Three relegation positions at the end of the season. Peterborough United, who ordinarily would have ended up in the top half of the table, were demoted for making irregular payments to players leaving fourth from bottom Mansfield to escape the drop.

MORECAMBE

FOUNDATION

Several attempts to start a senior football club in a rugby stronghold finally succeeded on 7 May 1920 at the West View Hotel, Morecambe and a team competed in the Lancashire Combination for 1920–21. The club shared with a local cricket club at Woodhill Lane for the first season and a crowd of 3,000 watched the first game. The club moved to Roseberry Park, the name of which was changed to Christie Park after J.B. Christie who as President had purchased the ground.

NEWCASTLE UNITED

FOUNDATION

In October 1882 a club called Stanley, which had been formed in 1881, changed its name to Newcastle East End to avoid confusion with two other local clubs, Stanley Nops and Stanley Albion. Shortly afterwards another club, Rosewood, merged with them. Newcastle West End had been formed in August 1882 and they played on a pitch which was part of the Town Moor. They moved to Brandling Park in 1885 and St James' Park 1886 (home of Newcastle Rangers). West End went out of existence after a bad run and the remaining committee men invited East End to move to St James' Park. They accepted and, at a meeting in Bath Lane Hall in 1892, changed their name to Newcastle United.

NEWPORT COUNTY

FOUNDATION

In 1912 Newport County were formed following a meeting at The Tredegar Arms Hotel. A professional football club had existed in the town called Newport FC, but they ceased to exist in 1907. The first season as Newport County was in the second division of the Southern League. They started life playing at Somerton Park where they remained through their League years. They were elected to the Football League for the beginning of the 1920–21 season as founder members of Division 3. At the end of the 1987–88 season, they were relegated from the Football League and replaced by Lincoln City. On February 27 1989, Newport County went out of business and from the ashes Newport AFC was born. Starting down the pyramid in the Hellenic League, they eventally gained promotion to the Conference in 2011 and were promoted to the Football League after a play-off with Wrexham in 2013.

NOTTINGHAM FOREST

FOUNDATION

One of the oldest football clubs in the world, Nottingham Forest was formed at a meeting in the Clinton Arms in 1865. Known originally as the Forest Football Club, the game which first drew the founders together was 'shinney', a form of hockey. When they determined to change to football in 1865, one of their first moves was to buy a set of red caps to wear on the field.

Peterborough's first success came in 1939–40, but from 1955–56 to 1959–60 they won five successive titles. During the 1958–59 season they were undefeated in the Midland League. They reached the third round of the FA Cup, won the Northamptonshire Senior Cup, the Maunsell Cup and were runners-up in the East Anglian Cup.

PLYMOUTH ARGYLE

FOUNDATION

The club was formed in September 1886 as the Argyle Athletic Club by former public and private school pupils who wanted to continue playing the game. The meeting was held in a room above the Borough Arms (a coffee house), Bedford Street, Plymouth. It was common then to choose a local street/terrace as a club name and Argyle or Argyll was a fashionable name throughout the land due to Queen Victoria's great interest in Scotland.

PRESTON NORTH END

FOUNDATION

North End Cricket and Rugby Club, which was formed in 1863, indulged in most sports before taking up soccer in about 1879. In 1881 they decided to stick to football to the exclusion of other sports and even a 16–0 drubbing by Blackburn Rovers in an invitation game at Deepdale, a few weeks after taking this decision, did not deter them for they immediately became affiliated to the Lancashire FA.

THE Sun FACT FILE

Preston North End had a long-standing policy of not playing home games on Christmas Day and did not do so throughout the period from the end of the First World War through until their last Yuletide game at Blackpool in 1958. The reason for this appears to have been financial rather than religious as North End reserves regularly played home matches on the day.

QUEENS PARK RANGERS

FOUNDATION

There is an element of doubt about the date of the foundation of this club, but it is believed that in either 1885 or 1886 it was formed through the amalgamation of Christchurch Rangers and St Jude's Institute FC. The leading light was George Wodehouse, whose family maintained a connection with the club until comparatively recent times. Most of the players came from the Queen's Park district so this name was adopted after a year as St Jude's Institute.

John Swift's 13th-minute goal for Reading against Nottingham Forest on 31 October 2017 helped the Royals on their way to a comfortable 3-1 win over Nottingham Forest. The goal also had a wider historical significance as the 6,000th Football League goal scored by the club since they became members of the competition in 1920.

ROCHDALE

FOUNDATION

Considering the love of rugby in their area, it is not surprising that Rochdale had difficulty in establishing an Association Football club. The earlier Rochdale Town club formed in 1900 went out of existence in 1907 when the present club was immediately established and joined the Manchester League, before graduating to the Lancashire Combination in 1908.

DID YOU KNOW ?

The contribution made by Charlie Hurst to the history of English football was considerably greater than the four appearances he made for Rochdale in the 1946–47 season. His son Geoff went on to win 49 England caps and his hat-trick in the 1966 World Cup final provided one of the greatest ever occasions in the nation's football history.

DID YOU KNOW?

Rotherham United gates more than doubled following the appointment of Tommy Docherty as manager in November 1967. However, he was not a great success at Millmoor and the club were relegated at the end of the season. He stayed until shortly before the end of 1968 before moving on to Queens Park Rangers.

SCUNTHORPE UNITED

FOUNDATION

The year of foundation for Scunthorpe United has often been quoted as 1910, but the club can trace its history back to 1899 when Brumby Hall FC, who played on the Old Showground, consolidated their position by amalgamating with some other clubs and changing their name to Scunthorpe United. The year 1910 was when that club amalgamated with North Lindsey United as Scunthorpe and Lindsey United. The link is Mr W. T. Lockwood whose chairmanship covers both years.

SHEFFIELD UNITED

FOUNDATION

In March 1889, Yorkshire County Cricket Club formed Sheffield United six days after an FA Cup semi-final between Preston North End and West Bromwich Albion had finally convinced Charles Stokes, a member of the cricket club, that the formation of a professional football club would prove successful at Bramall Lane. The United's first secretary, Mr J. B. Wostinholm, was also secretary of the cricket club.

SOUTHAMPTON

FOUNDATION

The club was formed by members of the St Mary's Church of England Young Men's Association at a meeting of the Y.M.A. in November 1885 and it was named as such. For the sake of brevity this was usually shortened to St Mary's Y.M.A. The rector Canon Albert Basil Orme Wilberforce was elected president. The name was changed to plain St Mary's during 1887–88 and did not become Southampton St Mary's until 1894, the inaugural season in the Southern League.

STEVENAGE

FOUNDATION

There have been several clubs associated with the town of Stevenage. Stevenage Town was formed in 1884. They absorbed Stevenage Rangers in 1955 and later played at Broadhall Way. The club went into liquidation in 1968 and Stevenage Athletic was formed, but they, too, followed a similar path in 1976. Then Stevenage Borough was founded. The Broadhall Way pitch was dug up and remained unused for three years. Thus the new club started its life in the modest surrounds of the King George V playing fields with a roped-off ground in the Chiltern League. A change of competition followed to the Wallspan Southern Combination and by 1980 the club returned to the council-owned Broadhall Way when "Borough" was added to the name. Entry into the United Counties League was so successful the league and cup were won in the first season. On to the Isthmian League Division Two and the climb up the pyramid continued. In 1995–96 Stevenage Borough won the Conference but was denied a place in the Football League as the ground did not measure up to the competition's standards. Subsequent improvements changed this and the 7,100 capacity venue became one of the best appointed grounds in non-league football. After winning elevation to the Football League the club dropped Borough from its title.

STOKE CITY

FOUNDATION

The date of the formation of this club has long been in doubt. The year 1863 was claimed, but more recent research by local club historian Wade Martin has uncovered nothing earlier than 1868, when a couple of Old Carthusians, who were apprentices at the local works of the old North Staffordshire Railway Company, met with some others from that works, to form Stoke Ramblers. It should also be noted that the old Stoke club went bankrupt in 1908 when a new club was formed.

SUNDERLAND

FOUNDATION

A Scottish schoolmaster named James Allan, working at Hendon Board School, took the initiative in the foundation of Sunderland in 1879 when they were formed as The Sunderland and District Teachers' Association FC at a meeting in the Adults School, Norfolk Street. Due to financial difficulties, they quickly allowed members from outside the teaching profession and so became Sunderland AFC in October 1880.

DID YOU KNOW ?

Swansea Town fans had their own song written for them in 1913. Published in a local newspaper, The World of Sport, 'The Swans' War Song' was written to be sung to the tune of 'Here comes the Chocolate Major', a popular music hall ditty of the time. It is not known whether or not fans actually sang the song at matches.

SWINDON TOWN

FOUNDATION

It is generally accepted that Swindon Town came into being in 1881, although there is no firm evidence that the club's founder, Rev. William Pitt, captain of the Spartans (an offshoot of a cricket club), changed his club's name to Swindon Town before 1883, when the Spartans amalgamated with St Mark's Young Men's Friendly Society.

TOTTENHAM HOTSPUR

FOUNDATION

The Hotspur Football Club was formed from an older cricket club in 1882. Most of the founders were old boys of St John's Presbyterian School and Tottenham Grammar School. The Casey brothers were well to the fore as the family provided the club's first goalposts (painted blue and white) and their first ball. They soon adopted the local YMCA as their meeting place, but after a couple of moves settled at the Red House.

TRANMERE ROVERS

FOUNDATION

Formed in 1884 as Belmont they adopted their present title the following year and eventually joined their first league, the West Lancashire League, in 1889–90, the same year as their first success in the Wirral Challenge Cup. The club almost folded in 1899–1900 when all the players left en bloc to join a rival club, but they survived the crisis and went from strength to strength, winning the 'Combination' title in 1907–08 and the Lancashire Combination in 1913–14. They joined the Football League in 1921 from the Central League.

WALSALL

FOUNDATION

Two of the leading clubs around Walsall in the 1880s were Walsall Swifts (formed 1877) and Walsall Town (formed 1879). The Swifts were winners of the Birmingham Senior Cup in 1881, while the Town reached the 4th round (5th round modern equivalent) of the FA Cup in 1883. These clubs amalgamated as Walsall Town Swifts in 1888, becoming simply Walsall in 1895.

WEST BROMWICH ALBION

FOUNDATION

There is a well known story that when employees of Salter's Spring Works in West Bromwich decided to form a football club, they had to send someone to the nearby Association Football stronghold of Wednesbury to purchase a football. A weekly subscription of 2d (less than 1p) was imposed and the name of the new club was West Bromwich Strollers.

West Ham United twice played Southern League Hereford United in the FA Cup in the early 1970s and on both occasions the first game was drawn. The Hammers won the replay in 1971–72 but lost at Edgar Street in 1973–74. This is the only time since entering the Football League in 1919 that the club has been eliminated from the FA Cup by a non-league side.

WIGAN ATHLETIC

FOUNDATION

Following the demise of Wigan Borough and their resignation from the Football League in 1931, a public meeting was called in Wigan at the Queen's Hall in May 1932 at which a new club, Wigan Athletic, was founded in the hope of carrying on in the Football League. With this in mind, they bought Springfield Park for £2,250, but failed to gain admission to the Football League until 46 years later.

WYCOMBE WANDERERS

FOUNDATION

In 1887 a group of young furniture trade workers called a meeting at the Steam Engine public house with the aim of forming a football club and entering junior football. It is thought that they were named after the famous FA Cup winners, The Wanderers, who had visited the town in 1877 for a tie with the original High Wycombe club. It is also possible that they played informally before their formation, although there is no proof of this.

YEOVIL TOWN

FOUNDATION

One of the prime movers of Yeovil football was Ernest J. Sercombe. His association with the club began in 1895 as a playing member of Yeovil Casuals, of which team he became vice-captain and in his last season 1899–1900, he was chosen to play for Somerset against Devon. Upon the reorganisation of the club, he became secretary of the old Yeovil Town FC and with the amalgamation with Petters United in 1914, he continued to serve until his resignation in 1930.
